Zabel Property named "Best Real Estate Agency Europe"

Berlin, 14 December 2015 – Zabel Property has been awarded the top spot in the "Best Real Estate Agency Europe" category at the International Property Awards in London. The real estate company already made its mark in September at the presentation of the corresponding award at the German level.

“The International Property Award is the only competition among real estate companies that determines an expert on two different levels – national and international. More than 10.000 companies are taken into consideration worldwide”, says Stuart Shield, publisher of the International Property Awards. “This year we’ve had more than 2.300 applicants.”

The International Property Award is the largest international award in the real estate industry. For the last 23 years the annual awards are split into regions covering Africa, Asia-Pacific, the Middle East, Canada, Caribbean, Central & South America, Europe, UK and the USA. The event bestows prestigious accolades on the top real estate companies in the world. The winners are selected by a highly experienced judging panel comprising professionals from across the entire spectrum of real estate disciplines. The awards were presented on December 7th 2015, in London.
