Berlin Capital Investments awarded at global real estate conference in Las Vegas

Leading Real Estate Companies of the World (LeadingRE), a global network composed of more than 500 leading real estate companies, has awarded Berlin Capital Investments with the prestigious Momentum Club Award. The Momentum Club is a big award from LeadingRE that recognizes companies that are growing, gaining marketshare, and supporting the network referral program.

The distinction for this branch of the Zabel Immobilien Group, specialised in the marketing of exclusive apartments in Berlin, was awarded at the annual Performance Awards Gala which took place during the LeadingRE conference week from February 23 to 27 in Las Vegas. This year, the conference attracted a record audience of 2,500 real estate experts from nearly 20 nations. The general conference programme offered target group specific round table discussions along with an important networking opportunity for colleagues from all fields of the industry. After several European Property Awards and one International Property Award, the Momentum Club Award provides Berlin Capital Investments with their second award on a global level.

“To be recognized among this prestigious group of market-leading companies is a noteworthy accomplishment, and we are so pleased to honor the winners for their significant accomplishments”, said Pam O’Connor, CEO of LeadingRE.

“Given the high proportion of international clients (about 60%), we have a lot of experience when it comes to dealing with our clientele and client referrals,” explains Thomas Zabel, Managing Director of Berlin Capital Investments. “An occasion like the conference week with LeadingRE is an excellent opportunity for us in getting to know the leading real estate experts from all over the world and a great chance for us to enrich and expand our existing connections. These connections enable us to source top-class clients and to satisfactorily serve everyone,” continues Zabel.

LeadingRE is the largest global network of leading real estate companies. With a comprehensive range of brokerage services, LeadingRE provides its advertising partners with support on a professional level and annually bestows awards such as the Momentum Club Award and the prestigious Diamond Award. This year, the Diamond Award was awarded to Watson Realty from Florida for the second time in a row for outstanding services in all business areas. Berlin Capital Investments has been a member of this exclusive network since 2012.
